M., and adjourn at 12 M. But the Conference may, in its discretion, alter the time of meeting and adjournment.

Rule 2. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his appeal.

Rule 3. All resolutions and motions shall be in writing, if the President, Secretary, or any two members request it.

Rule 4. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.

Rule 5. The motions to Lay on the Table, to Take from the Table, and for the Previous Question, shall be taken without debate.

RULE 8. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

RULE 9. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege, he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a question of privilege.

RULE 12. No member shall absent himself from the service of the Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

RULE 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

RULE 14. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, shall excuse him.

REPORTS.

On Education.

Your Committee on Education respectfully submit the following report:

We first present the report of J. W. Welch and W. D. Parr, the Visitors to DePauw University, which will set forth the condition of that grand Institution:

DePauw University.

We are pleased to assure the friends and patrons of higher education of the continued prosperity of our beloved University. The buildings commenced about two years ago are finished and furnished in a most excellent manner. The Women's Hall and the Gentlemen's Hall are certainly superior buildings of their class. The students' dining-hall, in connection with Women's Hall, is a success. The food is plain, but substantial. The successful management of this dining-hall has practically solved the embarrassing question of student-living in Greencastle.

The McKim Observatory, situated in University Park, is so completely furnished with all modern appliances calculated to facilitate the study of astronomy and kindred subjects, that it is now considered in all respects equal to any observatory in this country.

Eight hundred and thirteen students were in attendance during the year.

The College of Liberal Arts shows now, as in the past, most excellent results. The course of study is substantially the same as in former years. At the last commencement, held June 24th, 1886, thirty-two graduated. We believe the high standard of this College is in every way fully maintained.

The School of Military Science and Tactics having held its final exercises some time prior to the commencement proper, we, therefore, saw nothing of the regular work of this important school. The influence of this department is plainly seen, however, in the manly bearing and splendid general deportment of the students.

The School of Theology, Rev. S. L. Bowman, S. T. D., Dean, had a prosperous year. There were forty-seven students in attendance during the year. At the commencement of this school, held May 18th, 1886, the first student graduated. This school is in the second year of its existence, and it is believed that results so encouraging have never appeared before in the brief history of any like school in our Church. We regret to note the resignation of Prof. W. W. Martin, professor of Exegetical Theology of the Old Testament. Rev. John Poucher was elected to this professorship. Brother Poucher is a graduate of DePauw University and of Garrett Biblical Institute. We believe that the Joint Board could have made no better selection.

The School of Law, Judge Downey, LL. D., Dean, gives evidence of growing efficiency. The standing of the Dean in the legal profession is a sufficient warrant for the character of the work done in this school.

The School of Music, James H. Howe, Dean, late of Boston Conservatory, shows developments in music that are very gratifying. Dean Howe is assisted by an ample and able faculty of professors and instructors. We believe this school has no equal in the West.

The School of Art, Henry A. Mills, Dean, had been in existence but one year. Still, the developments are even more than could be expected under the circumstances. We trust this school will be fostered and patronized, as its efficiency is so helpful to the general interests of the University.

We find the Normal School in a very high state of development, being conducted by a full and very able faculty. Prof. S. S. Parr, late of the State Normal, is principal. In our opinion this school is not surpassed, if equaled, by any in this country.

The government of the University is all that could be desired. President Martin is an able administrator. Best of all, a healthy religious sentiment pervades the entire University. Considering the formative condition of several departments of the University, rendering the work incident to the policy of expansion so arduous, we congratulate friends and patrons on the great and general prosperity of our chief Institution of learning in Indiana.

Your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions in regard to DePauw University:

Resolved, That we approve of the proposition to observe the semi-centennial of DePauw University, as recommended by the committee appointed by the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors.

Resolved, That in harmony with other educational interests now pressing upon us, we will favor any effort to meet the request made to us from the Trustees of the University, and as rapidly as possible we will meet the moral obligation resting upon us to aid in the endowment of the University.

Resolved, That we recommend to the favorable attention of laymen and to students contemplating a course in Biblical instruction, the School of Theology of DePauw University.

We also recommend that Milton Mahin (M. H. Mendenhall declining to longer serve), and T. B. Redding, be elected Trustees and C. G. Hudson and C. H. Brown Visitors, to DePauw University.

Ft. Wayne College.

We present the following report of S. J. McElwee and J. B. Carns, visitors to Ft. Wayne College:

We, your committee appointed to visit Ft. Wayne College, respectfully submit the following:

In the discharge of our duty, we found Dr. W. F. Yocum, the President, to be assisted by a corps of efficient and successful teachers. The course of study is designed to prepare the student for the Sophomore class in DePauw University, or similar Institutions.

This College furnishes suitable education for business life. The patronage this year was about the same as last. The revival spirit more or less prevails constantly. The Trustees have made a much needed improvement in an additional building. We suggest that an agent be appointed to raise the means to liqudate the indebtedness. This North Indiana College merits our patronage and support.

Your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Trustees of Fort Wayne College have employed the Rev. W. O. Butler, as agent, to canvass within the bounds of this Conference in the interests of the said Institution; therefore be it Resolved, 1. That we pledge ourselves individually and collectively to aid the Fort Wayne College in every way and manner consistent with our duties to our respective charges and circuits.

Resolved, 2. That we will welcome Brother Butler as such agent to our pulpits and people, and give him our personal assistance towards the accomplishment of his work.

We also recommend that H. C. Hartman, L. R. Hartman, Philip Harter, J. K. Walts and C. B. Stemen be elected Trustees, and A. S. Wooten and H. M. Lamport as Visitors of Fort Wayne College.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

We also submit the report of C. E. Disbro and W. H. Daniel, Visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute.

The Visitors from this Conference to Garrett Biblical Institute submit the following report:

The Institute building, situated in a beautiful grove on the shore of Lake Michigan, is in excellent condition, pleasing in architecture and admirably arranged for school purposes. The Reading Room contains most of our Church papers, as well as other denominational and secular papers, arranged and neatly kept. The library has been greatly enlarged by the addition of $1,200 worth of valuable books. Ground was broken during commencement week for a Memorial Hall, costing $35,000. This building contains a chapel, recitation rooms, a library room and a fire-proof vault for the safe-keeping of valuable books and papers. The members of the Faculty are earnest, Christian men, capable in their respective departments, fully up to the demands of the age, and anxious to do all for the school and students possible. During the year 118 students were enrolled. These came from all portions of the United States and one from Japan. The students sought time and opportunity to preach the gospel in various places during the year, and about five hundred souls were converted and added to the Church through their labors. The examinations were highly satisfactory to the visitors from the various Conferences, and evinced thorough work by the Faculty and students. The graduating class was very large and was composed of young men of fine ability and genuine piety. For the beauty and healthfulness of its situation, the thoroughness of its course of study, the eminent qualifications of its Faculty, and the refining influence of its society, we very sincerely commend this theological school to young men expecting to enter the Ministry of our Church.

We recommend the appointment of W. J. Vigus and D. C. Woolpert as Visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute.

Children's Day.

Your committee recommend the observance of Children's Day according to the provisions of the Discipline.

APPORTIONMENT FOR EDUCATION—We also recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Presiding Elders be instructed to apportion to the several Districts, on the same basis that the apportionment of the other benevolent collection is made, the sum of one thousand dollars, to be applied to Fort Wayne College, as the Educational Collection of the Conference.

D. C. WOOLPERT, Chairman.

J. K. WALTS, Secretary.

The following extract from the address of the Committee of Trustees and Visitors is inserted by request of President Martin.

THE SEMI-CENTENNIAL OF DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.

To the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

FATHERS AND BROTHERS:—The Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors of De Pauw University appointed the undersigned a committee to arrange for and address you on behalf of the proper celebration of the semi-centennial of your institution.

In doing this it is not thought best to distract attention with new schemes. The one great object which every friend of Methodism and of liberal education in the State of Indiana could wish to see secured, is the endowment of the University. When most seriously embarrassed by the necessity of better appliances and enlarged accommodations; by diminished income from a considerable part of the endowment being non-productive, and lower rates of interest from that which remained available; by the need of a larger staff of instructors for the increasing number of students that thronged its halls, God sent us through Washington C. DePauw, that most magnificent and hitherto, in our history, unparalleled tender of assistance which already has been productive of so much good, and which, if carried out, will place the institution—not simply as a college, but as a university in fact as well as name, at once on a sure and permanent foundation. The time remaining to complete our share of this work is short. Next October the five years in which we were to raise $120,000, pledged by us, will have expired. About one-half of this amount and some arrearages on uncollected interest is still due. The people of Greencastle and Putnam county have raised and paid over the sum required of them. So far Mr. DePauw has met and even gone beyond all he pledged, in giving two dollars for every one contributed by others. We have no assurance that this will be continued. Shall we imperil the whole affair by failure to do our part? The opportunity of the age is before us! It is impossible to calculate the disgrace and disastrous consequences of failure, or to over-estimate the glory and advantage which will accrue to the church of Christ and the world of mankind if success crowns our efforts. An immediate, united and earnest effort is required. Contributions at the rate of half a dollar per member in each of the charges of the Conference will at once place the enterprise beyond the possibility of failure. Dear fathers and brethren will not this be done? Can we afford to meet the verdict of posterity, the record of our fathers, the enlightened convictions of our own conscience, the judgment of the great day, if we allow such a grand opportunity to go by default? Let this be the crowning act of the first half century of our educational work in Indiana. Let us place our University where the grand field it occupies entitles it to stand—abreast of our best American schools, and in the front of those operated by American Methodism. So shall generations to come bless God that we lived and were wise to know the signs of the times. So shall He, whose we are, and whom we love, say "well done, good and faithful servant."

ALEXANDER MARTIN,
Committee.

ON TEMPERANCE.

(1.) WHEREAS, The manufacture, sale, and use of intoxicating liquor as a beverage, is the legitimate parent of not less than two-thirds of the perjuries, thefts, murders and many other crimes in our land; and believing that the licensing by the State of the sale of such liquor to be used as a beverage is equivalent to licensing the production of these crimes; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we are unalterably opposed to license in all of its forms, believing that we might as well license by name the children specified above, as to license the parent of the entire brood of vipers. And

(2.) WHEREAS, The saloon fraternity is utterly lawless, as is evident from its continual violation of every law which tends to restrict the evils of intemperance, and from the frequent arsons and murders for which this satanic brotherhood is directly responsible; therefore

Resolved, That we will not cease agitating in favor of absolute prohibition until the entire saloon system is utterly destroyed. And

(3.) WHEREAS, In the dastardly murder of our late brother, the Rev. George C. Haddock, of Sioux City, Iowa, we recognize the red hand of iniquity which this unholy alliance is ever ready to reach forth for the destruction of all who oppose the onward march of intemperance, well assured that, if it dared, it would smite each one of us as it smote our brother Haddock; therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we extend our tenderest sympathy to the afflicted family, we also pledge ourselves that so long as we hold sacred the memory of our martyred dead, we will not cease to use every legitimate weapon for the extermination of this monstrous crime of crimes, the saloon system.

(4.) Resolved, That to our sisters of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, we extend once more our heartiest greeting, and assure them of our readiness to assist them in every suitable way in their glorious work.

Resolved, That in the future, as in the past, we will heartily co-operate with the Freedmen's Aid Society in this grand and successful work, and we hereby pledge ourselves to make an earnest effort to raise the amounts that may be assessed to our charges for this purpose.

ON THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The American Bible Society commends itself to us by its record of three score years and ten, during which time it has published, and through its auxiliaries, county agents and colporteurs, has placed in the hands of the people forty-seven million volumes, including Bibles, Testaments and integral portions of the Scriptures. The work of the Society is not obsolete, but will continue a necessity until every home shall contain this blessed book, the Bible, "the entrance of which giveth light." It is important, therefore, that it should have the sympathy, prayers and substantial support of the universal church of God. We submit, therefore, the following resolution:

Resolved, That we heartily concur in the appointment of the Rev. W. J. Vigus, one of our own number, to the State superintendency.

Resolved, That we will heartily co-operate with him in his work in our charges, by kindly receiving his visits and faithfully presenting the claims of this most important interest.

C. E. BACON, Secretary. J. B. COOK, Chairman.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

ON BOUNDARIES.

MAJORITY REPORT.

Your Committee on Boundaries would respectfully report that in their judgment the circumstances do not call for the appointment of a Boundary Commission.

M. H. MENDENHALL,
Chairman.

D. C. WOOLPERT,
Secretary.

MINORITY REPORT.

A minority of the committee, to whom was referred the question of the expediency of appointing a Commission on Boundaries, to confer with a like Commission from the North-west Indiana Conference, would respectfully report that, after giving the North-west Commission a very full hearing, followed by a careful consideration of the various aspects and contingencies of the question, as developed in the discussions, they recommend the appointment of such a Commission, to confer with the Commission of the North-west Indiana Conference with reference to the consolidation of the two Conferences.

R. D. ROBINSON,
W. H. DANIEL,
C. H. BROWN.

COMMITTEE OF REFERENCE.

Your committee, to whom was referred the matter of the grievance of R. D. Robinson against W. O. Pierce, on account of certain publications in the Winchester Herald, would respectfully report that W. O. Pierce has reflected upon the official integrity of R. D. Robinson in the publication of two editorials in said paper, of which he was at the time one of the editors and proprietors, said publications bearing dates of April 21, 1886, and June 2, 1886; and we recommend that he be required to make an honorable and unequivocal retraction in the same paper in which the matter was published, the retraction to be first submitted to Rev. W. S. Birch and Rev. B. A. Kemp, and approved by them.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

Two members of the Board of the Preachers' Aid Society have died during the year, namely, J. F. Nickey, one of the managers and one of the Investing Committee, and John Marsh, our Treasurer. At the Annual Board meeting, in Muncie, on the 4th and 5th of this month, brother A. L. Kerwood was solicited to serve the Society and Board as our Treasurer, and has consented to do so should the Society elect him. Two members of the Board were assigned the duty of scheduling the notes, moneys and effects of the Society, and directed to pass the same into the hands of the Treasurer elect, and to take his receipt therefor. This receipt, together with the Treasurer's bond, will be filed with the Secretary of the Board. It is not possible for me to make an official itimized report of the financial condition of the Society until the committee have carefully scheduled the notes and moneys of the Society.

Mrs. Margaret McCarty.

Margaret Rhinewalt, wife of the Rev. J. S. McCarty, and daughter of George and Ruth Rhinewalt, was born in Chester county, Pa., October 21, 1830, and died in Pendleton, Ind., September 18, 1886, aged 55 years, 10 months and 17 days.

When Sister McCarty was about two years of age, her parents removed to Indiana, and settled in Pendleton, the place of her death. Here her childhood and youth were spent. Here she became acquainted with her now bereaved husband, and here she was married to him August 29, 1847, at the early age of 17 years.

Our sister was converted in the winter of 1852, and at the same time united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, the church which she loved, which she adorned, and to which she gave the strength of her life until the day of her death. In 1854, while still living at Pendleton, she cheerfully consented that her husband should enter upon the glorious work of proclaiming the gospel. She was not deterred from this work by any thought of its difficulties, its unpleasant trials, or hardships, but devotedly and faithfully did the work of an itinerant's wife for thirty-two years. Their first charge was at Pendleton, the home of their youth, which was also the last appointment she received, and where she laid down life's burdens, and went to be forever with the Lord.

Sister McCarty was the mother of three sons and six daughters. Of these the Good Shepherd took five in his arms and carried them in his bosom to a better life, where they were ready to welcome their mother.

Her last sickness was a species of paralysis, which gradually increased, until in a few days she peacefully fell asleep in Jesus. Her funeral sermon was delivered by the Rev. W. H. Pierce, of Selma, assisted by a number of members of this Conference, and attended by a vast congregation.

She seemed to have a premonition that her time on earth was short, for she frequently remarked that as Pendleton was their first charge, so it would probably be their last. She was very busy, even to the day that she dropped upon the floor, working upon garments and other matters of comfort for her husband, whom she realized she was so soon to leave. She also conversed concerning her failing health, and spoke of it without a fear, and with all the calmness of one whose peace is made with God. With her, death was swallowed up in victory, and although she was unable to speak at the last, yet her long and faithful life is a far better testimony than any dying words.

Sister McCarty possessed a very sweet and cheerful disposition. She made friends every-where, and had not an enemy on earth. She was domestic in her tastes, and strove earnestly and well to do her whole duty by her family. The current of her conjugal love was deep and true. She was an unfailing support to her husband in all his labors, and her wise counsels and words of exhortation and encouragement were his stay in every trying hour, and enabled him to come off victorious in all the conflicts of a minister's life.

She was very faithful in her attendance upon all of the means of grace. The last Sabbath before her sickness she was found in the class meeting and at the preaching service. While she was not much of a talker in public, she abounded in works of charity and kindness. Wherever sorrow and suffering were found, in homes of distress and trouble, there she carried cheer and sunshine to all who were in need.

She took a prominent part in the Woman's Crusade in the town of Jonesboro, and kneeled many a time by the side of the saloon or drug store, or within them, praying for a cessation of the murderous traffic in strong drink.

Her body rests on the hill side, overlooking the home of her youth and early married life, but she herself sits to-day with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of God.

"Our old companions in distress
We haste again to see,
And eager long for our release,
And full felicity.
E'en now by faith we join our hands
With those that went before;
And greet the blood-besprinkled bands
On the eternal shore."
